

Club Meeting Minutes from 14 Jan 2017

➤ Club Shoot at the Kitty Joe – blanket shoot.

Not so great weather for the Jan shoot. The morning started out cloudy and breezy with the possibility of rain. There were 11 hearty shooters that braved the wind and drizzle at the beginning of the shoot. The wind varied from mild to strong while the clouds seemed to boil in the sky. At shot 17 while lunch was being warmed up. A bolt of lightening and rolling thunder that seemed to shake the hills halted the shoot early. That turned out to be a good thing as it gave the shooters time to get to their trucks before the rain started. There was a break in the rain shortly and the targets were collected, lunch was served, and a very short meeting was conducted. Lunch was a pasta and meat sauce. The pasta was over cooked (I did it) but still seemed to be tasty.

Two retuning guests Don and Greg Mawson joined us for this event Maybe next time they will join the club.
