Club Meeting Minutes from 13 Oct 2018

Club Shoot at the Rendezvous site – blanket shoot.

We started the day cutting down about 6 of the large Desert Broom plants. These are the plants that produce the fluff every year. We might be able to cut another 1 or 2 when we set up the paper range on Saturday 3 Nov. about 8 am. We can always use help so please come if you can.

Tom Smith and Andy Lund set up the shoot. And they got creative. Take a look at the target list. The sky was full of clouds as we started to shoot. We got through 10 shots and decided the rain was winning. Lunch was chili and fixins. It was a challenge to warm it up as the stove refused to light. Perseverance got a fire started and while the chili heated we had the club meeting. Everyone got full and we packed up to leave.

This is when the fun started. The rain had softened the road out about 8 inches deep in very soft mud. But we got everyone out in about an hour.
